

SKIN

David Campbell

I wonder why
my skin's so thin ...
it has to keep
my insides in!
It also blocks
the nasties out...
it's something I
can't do without!

It's funny stuff,
it splits and peels,
but it's cut...
guess what? It heals!
It's one of my
most precious things...
the way it fits,
the way it clings.

A wrinkle here,
a dimple there,
it hugs me tight
just everywhere!
It stays with me
for all I do,
and as I grow
it stretches too!

On leg or arm
or nose or chin
I really love
my skinny skin!
