

BLACKTA

BROWN:

D'you know the philosophy of the Jedi? Not many people do ... you see the Jedi are warriors, who use their power for the good of others, they lie peaceful and passive - but once disturbed - once challenged - they strike back - without judgement, merely to restore balance, harmony. Their source of power is the force, the source of all things ... It's in you. It's in me. It's in this room, that chair - the air, a blade of grass - in all things. It's what binds us - one living organism ... once channelled, a Jedi warrior is capable of magnificent feats, but this very power - the force! Can be drawn on by the Sith ... Satan waz a Sith, one could even argue that the dark lord, is leader of all Sith. His blind vanity and lascivious lust for power - is what defines a Sith, he draws upon the force to have dominion over men, to control all things, and make all worship of him and his infidel idolatry! ... Dull Brown, we live in a world run by Sith, Sith Prime ministers and presidents, Sith CEOs, Sith bankers, Sith media, Sith pharmaceutical companies, Sith science, Sith farms, Sith religion, Sith food - Sith poom - Sith drink - Sith everything. (Beat). And so, you have to make a choice - because like I said to Black ... Jedi don't roll wid Sith ... so which are you blud?
