ISE I SAMPLE NW
Integrated Skills in English I

Time allowed: 2 hours
This exam paper has four tasks. Complete all tasks.

Task 1 — Long reading
Read the following text about tour guides and answer the 15 questions on page 3.

Paragraph 1
For a lot of young people, being a tour guide seems to be an ideal way to make money. You visit wonderful places and meet interesting people — it’s almost like a paid holiday with no expenses. In reality, of course, it can be tiring, boring and stressful having to solve all the problems and deal with the demands of the people who have paid money for your services.

Paragraph 2
And it seems that tourists these days demand more and more. This is partly because of the internet: before they go away on holiday, they do their research, so they already know a lot of the basic information that guides used to tell them. What they want is something different and special. It isn’t enough any more just to take them round the famous buildings, monuments and tourist sites and tell them a few dates and interesting stories. In fact, tourists nowadays don’t like to think they are tourists at all. Today’s well-informed ‘traveller’ prefers culture, seeing something of people’s real way of life in the place they’re visiting.

Paragraph 3
This need has led to a new kind of tour guide becoming popular. These people, sometimes called ‘step-on guides’, live in the area and have local knowledge. They don’t take the place of the normal guide; their job is just temporary, ‘stepping onto’ the tour bus and taking visitors to unusual places and providing the kind of information that regular tour guides can’t offer.

Paragraph 4
Being a step-on guide can give you all the fun of being a tour guide without all the problems. ‘I really enjoy it,’ says Enrique, a university student who became a step-on guide in his home city of Valencia in Spain two years ago. ‘It’s best not to think of it as just a job. Of course the extra money is useful but mainly it’s a great way to meet people and give them an introduction to your town or city.’

Paragraph 5
Being a successful step-on guide depends on getting to know what travellers really want. Enrique has learnt this from experience: ‘To me, my customers are more like students than tourists. But I never lecture them. That’s very important because they’re normally very well-educated people. I don’t want them just to take in whatever I say — I prefer them to have an active experience, meeting local people and asking questions.’
Questions 1-5
The text on page 2 has five paragraphs (1-5). Choose the best title for each paragraph from A-F below and write the letter (A-F) on the lines below. There is one title you don’t need.

1. Paragraph 1 ............................ A Advantages of the job

Task 2 — Multi-text reading

In this section there are four short texts for you to read and some questions for you to answer.

Questions 16–20

Read questions 16-20 first and then read texts A, B, C and D below the questions.

As you read each text, decide which text each question refers to. Choose one letter — A, B, C or D — and write it on the lines below. You can use any letter more than once.

Which text

16. says how often to do different types of exercise?

17. says that spending energy can give you more energy?

18. suggests a connection between performance at school and exercise?

19. advises people to limit certain activities?

20. recommends exercise as a sociable activity?

Text A

TiredTeen01: Hi. I’m a high school student. I sleep well and eat well but I’m just so tired all the time! Can you give me some advice please?

DoctorT: Hi TiredTeen01. Your problem is very common, and there may be a very easy solution to your tiredness. You might feel too tired to exercise, but regular exercise will make you feel less tired and you’ll have more energy. Even a single 15 minute walk can increase your energy, and the benefits increase with more frequent physical activity. Start with a small amount of exercise and then build up your physical activity gradually over weeks and months. While it may seem as if moving about when you feel exhausted is the quickest way to feeling more exhausted, the opposite is true. Try it – you won’t be disappointed!

Text B

Why do you go to the gym? Maybe it’s because you want to get fit or lose weight, but it’s probably not because you want to improve your brain. However, exercise is one of the best things you can do for your brain in terms of memory and learning. Exercise increases brain chemicals, which help make new brain cells. Complicated physical activities, like taking a dance class or playing tennis, help us learn better by improving our attention and concentration skills. Researchers found that high school students scored better on difficult tasks after doing 10 minutes of a complicated fitness routine. Those who did 10 minutes of regular exercise did less well and those who hadn’t exercised at all scored the worst.
Text C

Why Exercise?

- It’s free and easy and has an immediate effect.
- It can reduce your risk of serious illnesses such as heart disease by up to 50%.
- Exercise improves your mood. It is great for decreasing stress as the chemicals produced when you exercise leave you feeling happier and more relaxed.
- Physical exercise can improve your sleep. Regular exercise can help you fall asleep more easily and also gives you a deeper sleep. However, don’t exercise too close to bedtime or you may find it difficult to sleep.
- Exercise is fun! It’s a great way to meet people or to enjoy free time with friends and family.

Questions 21-25

Choose the five statements from A–H below that are TRUE according to the information given in the texts above. Write the letters of the TRUE statements on the lines below (in any order).

21. ........................
22. ........................
23. ........................
24. ........................
25. ........................

A  You can increase energy levels without going to the gym every day.
B  If you feel exhausted it’s better not to exercise.
C  Exercise can help you remember things better.
D  All kinds of exercise have the same effect on your learning.
E  Exercise can make you feel less stressed.
F  The quality of your sleep is better when you exercise during the day.
G  If you exercise regularly, it isn’t important how much TV you watch.
H  You should do half an hour or more of sports such as swimming.

Text D

Task 3 – Reading into writing

Write an article (100-130 words) for a health and fitness magazine for young people about why more students should do exercise.

Use the information you read in Task 2 (pages 4-6) to:

- explain how exercise can improve students’ lives
- say how exercise can help them study and
- tell students how they can make exercise part of their daily life.

You should plan your article before you start writing. Think about what you want to say and make some notes to help you in this box:

(No marks are given for these planning notes)

Now write your article of 100-130 words on the lines below. Try to use your own words as far as possible – don’t just copy sentences from the reading texts.
This exam paper has four tasks. Complete all tasks.
When you have finished your article, spend 2–3 minutes reading through what you have written. Make sure you have covered all three bullet points. Remember to check how you made use of the reading texts, as well as the language and organisation of your writing.
Task 4 — Extended writing

Write an article (100-130 words) for the school website about the best ways to learn English. You should:
- give examples of how you like to practise English and
- explain why these ways help you to improve your English.

You should plan your article before you start writing. Think about what you want to say and make some notes to help you in this box:

Planning notes

(No marks are given for these planning notes)

Now write your article of 100-130 words on the lines below.
When you have finished your article, spend 2-3 minutes reading through what you have written. Make sure you have covered both bullet points and remember to check the language and organisation of your writing.
