

News and information

June 2018

Supporting professional development

This e-newsletter shares news and information for English language teaching professionals from the Trinity TESOL team. You can also download it as a PDF

IATEFL videos and scholarships

Coaching teachers to succeed

This year's annual IATEFL Conference, which took place in Brighton in April, attracted over 3,000 English language teaching professionals. As ever the event was a fantastic opportunity to learn about new research in ELT and for practitioners to share ideas about activities that promote great learning and teaching.

If you were unable to attend in person, you can still watch a selection record at IATEFL Online 2018.

One of the filmed presentations was Trinity IATEFL Scholarship winner Dalia Elhawary, talking about sustainable teacher development to support student learning, (pictured here with Trinity's Ben Beaumont and other scholarship winners).

Also available online is Ana Garcia-Stone's presentation on building teacher agency through the use of peer observations.

So - lots to reflect upon to help us develop our personal and institutional CPD programmes here!

Deadline for IATEFL 2019 Scholarships

Next year's IATEFL Conference takes place in Liverpool, and once again Trinity is offering two scholarship awards to enable winners to participate in the event. Find application details at Scholarships for the IATEFL conference. The deadline for applications is Thursday 12 July 2018.

With luck we may see you in Liverpool in 2019!

---

Turn your commute into a learning experience

Introducing TEFL Commute

Sometimes it feels good to zone out and stare into space during our commute, but at other times we find ourselves wanting to make the most of our time travelling to work. If this is the case then TEFL Commute may be the podcast you've been waiting for.

Led by Lindsay Clandfield, Shaun Wilden and James Taylor, each podcast episode is built around a topic you could use in your teaching and has a webpage with links to articles, notes and resources you can use with your students.

---

Don't miss The Future of ELT Conference this week

This Sunday 17 June - Regent's University, London

Regent's University London and Trinity College London are hosting the 3rd Future of English Language Teaching Conference in London this weekend.

Don't miss presentations from some of the industry's leading experts and the chance to participate in breakout sessions designed to support your professional development.

A great opportunity to learn from these plenary speakers:

- Diane Schmidt - English for Academic Purposes (EAP) is about more than linguistic awareness and academic discourse
- Jeanne Perrett - Five essentials for teachers of Young Learners
- Phillip Kerr - Using technology to personalise learning beyond the classroom
- Tessa Woodward - Teacher Education practice through the lens of history

Tickets cost £25 (lunch included)

Download the full programme

Book now

---

---

Connect with us on social media

Trinity College London is a leading international exam board providing assessments for performing arts and English language qualifications.

View in browser

Trinity College London is a charitable company registered in England.
Company no: 02683033. Charity no: 1014792.

Forward to a colleague

Registered office: Blue Fin Building, 110 Southwark Street, London SE1 0TA